About 80% of all job vacancies aren't advertised, so it is crucial that she market herself to businesses with an excellent resume and cover letter. Make sure your daughter tells as many people as possible that she is looking for work as often employers rely on 'word of mouth' to recruit for their positions.

- Job seeking resources: For excellent job seeking tips, and resume/cover letter templates, check out the resources at Youth Central- <https://bit.ly/2DIg04a>
- Rights and responsibilities: know your rights and responsibilities when starting a new job - <https://bit.ly/2SggKUP>
- Tax File Number (TFN): If you don't have a TFN, you will need to apply for one via the Australian Tax Office - <https://bit.ly/37VdCnP>

Parents – School to Work Resources

Supporting your daughter in preparing for the world of work after school can be a challenge. Casualisation and globalisation of the work force, automation and rapid advances in technology will impact her navigation of the world of work.

The Australian Government has developed resources to support parents through their new Future Ready Career Education Portal. To access the resources, go to <https://bit.ly/2Ok0wsL>

Competition – Filmmaking

Calling all High School film makers: As part of their annual Martini Film Festival & Awards, JMC Academy hosts the High School Mocktail Film Awards. To enter, you will need to submit a short film (e.g., film, documentary, animation, television commercial, film clip) by Sunday 5 April. To find out more and to submit your film, go to <https://bit.ly/3b8u2eN>

Year 12 Students

Is your daughter interested in a Defence Force Gap Year Program?

Applications for this fantastic program will open on the 1st of March. If your daughter is considering applying for a position in the Army, Air Force or Navy she should book her YOU Session as soon as possible.

The YOU Session is an aptitude day and is the first step in the recruitment process for all roles in the Defence Force. She can book a session by phoning 131 901 or visit the local Defence Force Recruiting Centre.

Note – anyone considering applying for any role in the Defence Force to start in 2020 or 2021 should book a YOU session early.
